administer the assets of this Trust in accordance with the following terms and provisions:

ARTICLE ONE

The Trust shall be administered until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-five (25) years or until such beneficiary's earlier death. Until the termination of the Trust, the Trustee shall apply the net income and principal of the Trust as follows:

(A) The Trustee may pay to, or apply for the benefit of, the beneficiary of the Trust the net income or principal of that beneficiary's Trust, up to the whole thereof, as approved from time to time by the Probate Judge, pursuant to an order of the Court. The determination of the Probate Judge with respect to payments to the beneficiary from that beneficiary's Trust shall be conclusive on all persons interested in that beneficiary's Trust.

(B) The Trustee shall not be liable to the beneficiary or other interested parties for distributions made from Trust income or Trust principal pursuant to an order of the Court.

(C) The Trustee shall not be required to see to the application of any funds paid or applied pursuant to an order of the Court, and the receipt of the payee shall be the full acquittance of the Trustee. The decision of the Probate Judge as to method of payment shall be conclusive and binding on all parties concerned.

(D) An adult beneficiary shall receive or waive notice of all proceedings pertaining to this trust, including, but not limited to applications to expend funds and accountings.

ARTICLE TWO

Any attempt to alienate any of the beneficial interests under this Trust shall be dealt with in the following manner:

If, because of any alienation or attempted alienation by the beneficiary of any interest or right to receive payments under this Trust, or if, from any cause whatsoever, such payments or any part thereof shall, or but for this provision would, at any time become payable to or pass to or for the benefit of any persons other than the beneficiary, the beneficiary's interest or right to receive such payments or such parts thereof shall cease and terminate during such period. Notwithstanding any forfeiture of the beneficiary, the Trustee may continue to pay to, or apply for the benefit of, such beneficiary the net income or principal of such beneficiary's Trust, up to the whole thereof, as approved from time to time by the Probate Judge, pursuant to an order of the Court, in the Probate Judge's uncontrolled discretion, but without any obligation on the Probate Judge to do so. If such a forfeiture exists when the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, or the beneficiary shall die prior to attaining the age of twenty-five (25) years, then all such forfeitures shall cease and terminate, and the Trust Estate shall be distributed pursuant to the provisions of Article Three.

ARTICLE THREE
